GROW YOUR OWN MUSHROOM KITS

A new product for us this spring has been the Grow Your Own Mushrooms kits. "One culture kit can give up to 4 harvests for a total of 1.5 lb. of fresh mushrooms." The kits are regularly priced at 30.75 ea. but this week are featured at only 18.45. We have several different varieties available and, if you'd like to learn more about how they work, check out this link:

What a roller-coaster ride the last two weeks - since the rain stopped and the sun showed its face - have been. It has been so busy, there's hardly been time to think! That said, I did have time to think about some super specials to offer this next week. Beside the cut-out coupon (above), our hanging basket/planter special will continue. If you get one basket or planter, it will be 15% off, get 2, they'll be 20% off and if you get 3 or more, they'll be 25% off. These are beautiful baskets and planters, many of which have only come in this past week (with more on the way). On top of that, all our annual flowers and veggies in 4 packs and in 2 inch singles are on sale. Look at these prices:

- 4 Packs (reg. 1.90 ea.) 1.00 ea.
- 2inch single flowers (reg. 2.00) 1.20 ea.
- 2inch single PW white pots (reg. 2.45) 1.70 ea.
- 2inch single herbs/veggies (reg. 1.50) 1.00 ea.

Our plants are in great shape and this is your chance to get started on your planting (yes, I know there are some of you out there), or to fill those odd spots that aren't looking as good as they could.

If you've shopped here in the past, you know that we carry more varieties of perennials than you'll find almost anywhere, including some hard-to-find items that often come with some out-of-this-world prices. The 50% off coupon (above) gives you a chance to score one of these items at a price that's easier to live with! Or, if you don't want to move into that 'rarified air', use it on a tried-and-true variety that will be good value in the garden. But remember, you must show the coupon when you make your purchase (or show us the coupon in our newsletter on your Smartphone) and it only applies to ONE perennial.

One last thing: all seed potatoes, onion sets, summer bulbs, pkg. strawberries and plant pots are now 50% off.

See you soon,
Harriet
